

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2672

February 3, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Repeals current law requiring the Registry of Election Finance or the county election commission, whichever is applicable, to send notifications to candidates when a person inspects such candidate's campaign finance statements. The bill also repeals the requirements for identification verification of those persons requesting to see such documents.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Expenditures $1,000

Decrease Local Govt. Expenditures - $1,000

Assumes a decrease in state and local government expenditures of approximately $1,000 respectively since notifications will no longer be required to be sent to candidates when such candidate's campaign finance information is inspected by the public.
